Music of Stephen Schwartz

May 23, 2010

Nestled in the magnificent gardens of the Van Vleck Estate in Upper Montclair, the mansion is the ideal setting to enjoy a potpourri of your opera favorites.

In order to raise funds for its next major production, SRO will entertain you with arias, duets, trios and a quartet sung by four lovely divas, depicting comedy, tragedy and everything in between from the music of Mozart, Rossini, Bellini, Donizetti, Puccini, Delibes, Verdi, Bizet, R. Strauss, Wagner and Douglas Moore.

Please join us for an unforgettable afternoon of music at our fundraising dinner on April 25, where SRO's divas: Clara Bystrand and Yeonjune Suh, sopranos, Katy Sumrow and Jessica Renfro, mezzos, ably accompanied by Warren Helms at the piano, will enthrall you with their exceptional talents.

SRO hosts a special benefit event on May 23. Cabaret performer Peter Jay Oliff will thrill you as he sings the wonderful Broadway songs of composer Stephen Schwartz. Joining Peter is jazz pianist Peter Nilsen, and we know you'll experience a delightful diversion from our beloved opera.

We hope you will attend both events and support the company as you enjoy the music.
