State Repertory Opera presents

Don Pasquale

Music by Gaetano Donizetti

Sung in Italian with English Supertitles

Sunday, May 20, 2007 at 7:00 p.m.

Artistic Director: Dita Delman

Conductor: James Sadewhite

Join SRO for Donizetti's powerful score with its soaring arias and duets as we celebrate our 32nd anniversary at an easily accessible metropolitan location — the Alexander Kasser Theater at Montclair State University, Montclair, NJ.

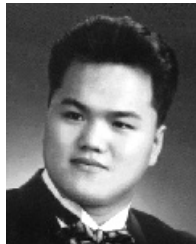

State Repertory Opera's fun-filled version of Donizetti's opera is about a very old bachelor who wants a very young wife. Unfortunately Pasquale's marriage will disinherit his nephew, Ernesto. Ernesto talks his girlfriend into a fake wedding with Pasquale. The mild mannered girlfriend / wife instantly turns into a selfish spendthrift and makes Pasquale's life hell. When the truth comes out, Pasquale is pleased to escape his marriage and have Norina marry his nephew. Good riddance!
